(1993-2005)

ARTWORKS - BY D. MAGUIRE

SYNOPSIS

Space decides to save the world and in order to do this he needs the help from others who have their special traits. So they all go on tour gradually meeting new recruits along the way. They all eventually join hands in forming the new age community, 'Magic Cloud.' (Who are involved with arts, recycling, and community care).

Eventually , everyone ends up in Heaven, where they meet Go who is not yet convinced that they are worthy. So he sends them back on a mission to turn the Earth back to it's original harmony.

Meanwhile, the Devil awaits in Hell. The crew return back to Earth and throw a big party, but Space is stolen by the Devil, and his friends have to go on a mission in order to rescue him.

Eventually the crew find Space trapped in the dungeons, but in order to rescue him, they must defeat the forces of evil, with true goodness. War breaks out between god and evil, but one of the crew manages to persuade everyone that art has the key to the universe. The forces of good and evil make up, and the book of time is closed giving birth to a new beginning.

Afterwards the crew go to live in the wild, in a commune living at one with nature and the animals. They listen to the stories of their father, who takes them onto a memory trip into the past. As his ambitions have now become fulfilled, the world as they know ceases to exist, and a new world of the future is prepared.
